

AUBURN SCHOOL DISTRICT
TEACHING ABOUT RELIGION

The First Amendment to the Constitution provides both freedom of religion and prohibition against the establishment of religion by the government. The Auburn School District, as an agency of the government, shall be neutral with respect to religious beliefs and also shall not engage in any activity that either disparages or advocates religion. The Auburn School District shall treat religions within the educational context in an open, forthright way consistent with the pluralistic nature of our community.
