

AUBURN SCHOOL DISTRICT
ASSIGNMENT OF STUDENTS TO HIGH SCHOOL

1. The Auburn School District maintains an agreement with Pinkerton Academy to educate its high school students. That agreement allows up to 5% of a class to attend another public high school.

2. Parents who would like their children to attend a public high school other than Pinkerton Academy are asked to do the following:
 - a. Acquire written authorization to attend the desired school from that school district's Superintendent and/or designee;

 - b. Provide written request for tuition payment by the Auburn School Board to the desired District if other than Pinkerton Academy. This request shall include acknowledgement of the parental responsibility for transportation.

 - c. The Auburn School Board must receive notification of the intention of a student to attend another public high school on or before September 15 in the year prior to the student's initial attendance.
